Membership Application

Purpose:
The Student Health Advisory Committee (SHAC) provides an essential link between UCF Student Health Services (SHS) and the UCF student body. SHAC represents the student body in relaying student health concerns to SHS, helps to promote SHS services and initiatives, and participates in SHS-sponsored events.

Participation:
SHAC is composed of up to 20 members and strives to be representative of a diverse student population.

- Any UCF student is eligible to apply for membership.
- Members are selected based on the merits of their application and interest in the group. Prospective members will be voted upon by SHAC Faculty Advisors.
- To remain on SHAC, members must not have more than one meeting absence per semester; additional absences will need to be approved by committee leadership.
- Members must also complete a minimum of 8.0 volunteer hours at SHS-sponsored events per semester in order to remain active. NOTE: most volunteer opportunities are during business hours.
- Once accepted into SHAC, students may remain a member until their graduation, as long as they meet membership requirements each semester.
- Membership is withdrawn by alerting members of the group of the withdrawal, or by failing to meet attendance or volunteer requirements.

Meetings:
SHAC meets once per month during the academic year on the following dates from 4:30-5:30PM at the Health Center. Additional meetings may be called for any SHAC subcommittees by leadership.
